

THE CRIME PREVENTION PEOPLE™

International Crime Prevention Specialist (ICPS) Training

The International Crime Prevention Specialist (ICPS) program gives participants three-days of comprehensive crime prevention training which will provide students with comprehensive knowledge covering nineteen, key core areas.

The following topics are covered during the three-day training:

- History of Crime Prevention
- Three Lines of Defense
- CPTED
- Auto Theft
- Identity Theft
- Con Games
- Child Safety
- Crimes against Older Adults
- School Safety
- Community Outreach
- Lighting for Security
- Security Surveys
- Armed Robbery
- Multi-Housing Crime Prevention
- Personal Safety
- Internet Safety
- Rural Crime Prevention
- Construction Site Crime Prevention
- Retail Crime Prevention

This training is open to anyone interested in learning more about crime prevention including crime prevention officers, crime prevention specialists, unit supervisors, volunteers, neighborhood watch coordinators, loss prevention managers and security professionals.

The cost of the training is $325 U.S. per person. The training includes 3 days of training, testing & test fees, the new 300 page ICPS Crime Prevention Curriculum and a one-year membership per attendee to the ISCPP. Successful candidates will earn the ICPS professional designation which they can place after their name.

Instructors

All Instructors have attained the ICPS designation and are or have been practicing crime prevention specialist with exceptional presentation skills. There may also be instructors who have experience in a particular crime prevention topic.

International Crime Prevention Specialist (ICPS) Training

Frequently Asked Questions

Is there a test at the end of the class?

Yes. Students are given a 200 question test at the end of the class.

Is the test difficult?

Students must achieve a passing grade of 75%. The majority of students complete the test satisfactorily.

What do I receive at the end of the class?

- a 300 page crime prevention resource book,
- a one year membership to the ISCPP,
- an ISCPP membership pin. and - if successful
- the ICPS designation which can appear after your name along with the ICPS pin.
To maintain your designation, you must continue your membership with the ISCPP. The cost of membership each year is only $35.*

Is this a certification class?

No, annual or bi-annual testing is required for recertification. Successful students will receive the ICPS designation from the ISCPP stating that you have demonstrated basic knowledge of crime prevention.

